

NIGERIAN LAW REFORM COMMISSION INVITATION TO TENDER

1.0 INTRODUCTION

The Nigerian Law Reform Commission was established in 1979 by the Nigerian Law Reform Commission Act CAP N118 LFN 2004. The functions of the Commission as set out in Sections 5 and 7 of the Act are generally to keep under review all Federal Laws with a view to their systematic and progressive development and reform in consonant with the prevailing norms of the Nigerian society. The Commission hereby invites interested consultants and contractors to submit technical and financial bids for the execution of Projects as contained in the 2018 Appropriation Act.
